Jeremy will speak about Blackwater, a firm that has proposed an 824-acre military-style training camp near Potrero, San Diego county. Proposed location borders on the Cleveland National Forest, and is a sensitive habitat for eagles and other wildlife, and is an important watershed.

Now, even our military is being outsourced to corporations who will sell military might to the highest bidder.

"BLACKWATER MERCENARIES ARE SOME OF THE MOST FEARED PROFESSIONAL KILLERS IN THE WORLD AND THEY ARE ACCUSTOMED TO OPERATING WITHOUT WORRY OF LEGAL CONSEQUENCES"

JEREMY SCAHILL

"...out of the rubble of New Orleans and other devastated areas, we're seeing a model for disaster profiteering that is emerging – similar to war profiteering that we've seen happen in Afghanistan, Iraq, the Balkans.... We are getting a glimpse of part of the future for this country, that so many people live as their present. It gives us a window into declarations of martial law, the wiping out of posse comitatus--which prohibits federal forces from operating as domestic law enforces on U.S. soil."
